No worries, Mike. I'll look for Tronox on Friday and Upper Animas on Monday like we talked about yesterday.

Hang in there!

I think I can make it for Tronox, Upper Animas and CLEAR. I'm attacking all on all three of them. I will not be able to work on anything other issues until I finish these projects. Thanks, Mike

Subject: funding deadlines...

So, apparently I'm off by a couple of days on the funding deadline – it's August 1st. However, those other two days are the weekend, so it's not quite so bad. Sorry!

Please get the funding paperwork for all the things you guys are working completed before then. If this is really going to be a problem (e.g., Tronox could be), please let me and Aaron know ASAP. There is a limited exceptions process – thanks! k
